

News to date!

Despite the weather being totally horrid last week Nick headed off to Pony of the Year Show with Emily and Claudia (and nine horses and ponies) Kelly and Caroline headed for Arena UK for the BSPS Winter Championship.

BSPS Winter Champs 2013

Once again the BSPS put on a great show. Our Noble ponies kept the name in lights again by coming away with several Winter titles. Millie Wannacot had a great show on Noble Riverdance winning the Novice 143cm WHP and taking Reserve Champion Novice WHP, Noble grand Conan and Kelly qualified in the horse workers for RIHS, Jodie Simmonds and Noble Super Storm had a great second in the Novice 133cm WHP, Noble Topcat and Lucy Wilkinson won the Novice Gold cup 143cm dressage and Noble Cuzco won the Novice int. Gold Cup.... lots more of our Noble boys and girls were placed in all sorts of classes well done all! Not forgetting Ruby who rode Blue (Charn Secret Legend) into second place in the Lead Rein Hunter Pony.

POYS Bury Farm

Mean while at an equally cold POYS Emily and Claudia were both having a great show. Emily had big wins on Prospect Eddie, Witch, Wizard and King Mac whilst Claudia had a fantastic win on the last day on liar Max along with many placings throughout the week. They came home with a clutch of prizes including ipads, ipods, rugs, boots, bandages..... Thanks POYS your prizes are the best of the year.

No rest for the show jumpers, Emily and Claudia now head to the Blue Chip finals at Hartpury whilst Caroline prepare for the National dressage Championships next week... Good luck to Caroline and Enchino x
